It's sometimes said patent med cines are for the ignorant. The loctors foster this idea. "The people," we're told, "are mostly science." Suppose they are! What but a cure, and the medicine that cures is the medicine for the sick. Dr. l'ierce's Golden Medical Dis covery cures the "do believes" and the don't believes." There's no hesitance about it, no "if" no you, only do as I direct." Perhaps it fails occasionally. The makers hear of it when it does, because they never keep the money when the medicine fails to do good. Sup pose the doctors went on that principle. (We beg the doctors' par-
